

Shift Huddle Guide: DailyPay Reminder

Manager objective:

Use this ultra-quick, 30-second refresher during your next team meeting to remind employees about DailyPay, especially for new hires or anyone who hasn't signed up yet.

Reminder: Managers can use DailyPay too!

30-Second Huddle Script

To keep this to 30 seconds, read each section as a continuous, quick announcement (approximately 10 seconds per category).

1. DailyPay refresher (10 Seconds)

What to say: "Quick reminder: we offer DailyPay, which lets you track, save, and access your earnings before payday. Next business day transfers to your bank account are completely free, and if you ever need your money instantly, you can transfer it for a fee."

2. How to Access or Sign Up (10 Seconds)

What to say: "To sign up, check your work or personal email for your secure DailyPay welcome link, or just download the app. If you're already an active user, just log in after your shift. If you don't have a smartphone, you can access your account at get.dailypay.com."

3. Key Reminders and Support (10 Seconds)

What to say: "Two quick reminders: first, active users must make all direct deposit updates directly within the DailyPay app. Second, if you ever need account or transfer help contact DailyPay's 24/7 support team directly."

DailyPay 24/7 Support

Availability: 24/7/365 (English & Spanish)

Phone: +1 (866) 432-0472

Email: support@dailypay.com

Help Center: help.dailypay.com

Try DailyPay yourself!

Download the app today to track your earnings and experience the benefit firsthand.

dailypay